

ABSTRACT

A national branch network facility for providing financial transaction-conducting capability as well as financial products sales capability and financial services; and non-financial products sales and services activity capability to businesses and affluent
5 individuals who are customers of member institutions of the network, which is owned, operated, managed, and/or maintained by a third-party, as well as a network of such facilities is disclosed, together with a method of operation thereof.